

CASTLE HILLS FIRST BAPTIST SCHOOL

STANDARDS OF CONDUCT

Castle Hills First Baptist School is leading students, in partnership with families, to know Christ and to make Christ known

As part of its basic philosophy of education, Castle Hills First Baptist School seeks to provide and maintain an environment that will most effectively train and mold our student's physical, spiritual, emotional, academic and social growth.

When students are admitted to Castle Hills First Baptist School, they become identified with the school. The school may be judged by the kind of persons they are and by the way they conduct themselves. It is expected that their conduct will reflect favorably on them and on the school at all times.

All students must understand clearly that in order to maintain its high standards, Castle Hills First Baptist School reserves the right to discipline, suspend, or expel a student who is guilty of excessive misconduct whether occurring on or off campus, school sponsored event or not. If a student exhibits unproductive behavior, he/she will be held accountable.

Castle Hills First Baptist School expects each student to maintain Christian standards of courtesy, kindness, morality, and honesty. The school further requires each student to refrain from profanity, indecent language, gambling, cheating, sexual immorality (including any student who professes to be homosexual/bisexual or is a practicing homosexual/bisexual, as well as any student who condones, supports, or otherwise promotes such practices) , stealing, the use of any type of tobacco, drugs, alcohol, and pornographic materials, and from participation in occult, unlawful, violent, or destructive acts.

Students are expected to abide by these standards throughout their enrollment at Castle Hills First Baptist School. This includes in term and out of term times--at school, home or any other place. Students found to be out of harmony with the Castle Hills First Baptist School's ideals of work and life may be asked to withdraw whenever the general welfare of the student body demands it.

It should be understood that this is a joint agreement between the school, the parent, and the student. It should be obvious to the parent that the school will enforce these standards to the best of its ability. It should also be obvious to the school that the parent enforces these standards while the student is associated with Castle Hills First Baptist School during the school term and the summer.
